Hear that conjure woman wailin' way o' way off in the night?

Hear them hoodoos howlin' cross the pale moonlight?

That's where you'll find me, that's where I'll be

Out there on the bayou 'neath the banyan tree

When the hoodoo come down

When the hoodoo come down

You'll feel the spirits swirlin' all around

When the hoodoo come down

When I was just a boy, mamma took me to a Santería Man

'Cause I said and did things she just couldn't understand

He lit a candle, he did a dance

He looked right through me, he was in some kinda trance

And he said "Boy, when I look way deep into your eyes,

I see a white bird float on a moonlit sky.

You've got the Light, You've got the Sight

Don't be afraid of those whispers in the night."

When the hoodoo come down

When the hoodoo come down

You'll feel the spirits swirlin' all around

When the hoodoo come down

I'm an uncommon shaman, bon temps is what I bring
I can call down the spirits, Lord! You can here it when I sing
Born for the highway, livin' for the muse
Dyin' to deliver my rhythm and blues
When the hoodoo come down
When the hoodoo come down
You'll feel the spirits swirlin' all around
When the hoodoo come down
